

Habakkuk part 1
Questioning God

Habakkuk 1:1-17

02.08.15

Driving thought: God is still at work even when it seems that He doesn't even hear.

“If God were unkind enough to answer some of our prayers at once, and in our way, we should be very impoverished Christians.” – D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones

Symptoms of a corrupt culture/Reasons why we question God:

- Violence and no _____ – v.2
  - No _____ from the same old problems – v.3
  - No answers to a _____ culture – v.4
- What happens when the lawbreakers outnumber the law abiders? The law becomes paralyzed.

God's answer to our questions in a corrupt culture:

- God is already at _____ even when it seems He's sitting idly by – v.5
- God uses _____ means to bring about justice: God uses the unjust to punish the unjust – v.5-6

Bio of the Chaldeans (ancient Iraqis):

1. Driven – v.6
  2. Lawless – v.7
  3. Skilled at violence – v.8-9
  4. Not intimidated by human strength or physical structures – v.10
  5. Past guilt and full of narcissism – v.11
- How can a perfect and holy God use corrupt people? – v.10-16
  - How long will God allow evil to go unchecked? – v.17

Q: How should we respond to evil in the world?

A: Walk by faith in God's character and His past actions (2:1-4).

Key: rescue/escape/collapsing/work/unusual
